Conference Room 3

Information for participants

Background

In 1999, the General Assembly decided to establish the United Nations Open-ended Informal Consultative Process on Oceans and the Law of the Sea (the Informal Consultative Process) in order to facilitate the annual review by the General Assembly, in an effective and constructive manner, of developments in ocean affairs and the law of the sea by considering the report of the Secretary-General on oceans and the law of the sea and by suggesting particular issues to be considered by it, with an emphasis on identifying areas where coordination and cooperation at the intergovernmental and inter-agency levels should be enhanced (resolution 54/33).

In paragraph 378 of General Assembly resolution 77/248 of 30 December 2022, the General Assembly decided that, in its deliberations on the report of the Secretary-General on oceans and the law of the sea, the Informal Consultative Process shall focus its discussions at its twenty-third meeting on the theme "New Maritime Technologies: Challenges and Opportunities".

The twenty-third meeting of the Informal Consultative Process will take place at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 5 to 9 June 2023.

Should the number of requests exceed the number of available days, the Division may also exercise its discretion in selecting side events with a view to ensuring variety in the topics covered by the side events.

Trust Fund

Attention is drawn to the limited funds available in the Voluntary Trust Fund established by the Secretary-General pursuant to General Assembly resolution 55/7 for the purpose of assisting developing countries, in particular least developed countries, small island developing States and landlocked developing States, in attending the meetings of the Informal Consultative Process. In this regard, the General Assembly, in paragraph 354 of resolution 76/72, expressed its continued serious concern regarding the lack of resources available in the above-mentioned Trust Fund and urged States, international financial institutions, donor agencies, intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations and natural and juridical persons to make additional contributions to the Trust Fund.

Pursuant to paragraph 355 of resolution 76/72, priority consideration in the disbursement of funds from the Voluntary Trust Fund will be given to panellists from developing countries who are invited by the Co-Chairs, in consultation with Governments, to make presentations during the meetings of the Informal Consultative Process. These panellists will also be eligible to receive daily subsistence allowance, subject to the availability of funds after the travel costs of all other eligible representatives have been covered. In this regard, consistent with resolution 55/7, preference will be given to processing applications received from least developed countries, small island developing States and landlocked developing States.
